

Peace, Love, Hope and Joy
This Christmas

We are glad you are taking the time to read this. It's approaching Christmas, a time when the world talks of peace and joy and hope. But this year especially, the reality seems quite far from this. We're feeling isolated from one another and we're fearful of what the future holds.

The question is then how can you find peace, joy and hope? Well we believe that faith in God and Christ gives us an avenue towards these things and we celebrate such especially at this time of the year. You will find on the back of this leaflet times of services throughout December, mostly on-line. Maybe you would like to join some of them and start on your road to peace, joy and hope. We'd love you to share with us.

Thank you for reading this leaflet!
